Maxwell Thomas® Napoli Collection

The recessed, black high-pressure laminate base of the Napoli collection provides a residential look, added stability and easy cleaning as items cannot collect under the unit. Durable melamine cabinets, high-pressure laminate tops and unique edges combine to withstand daily use. Bedside cabinets, chests and wardrobes have vented backs for airflow. Drawer stops help prevent accidental removal. Standard configuration features hinges on the left, but can be changed upon request. Choose from three headboard fabrics for a residential appeal.
